EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

☒ 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

☐ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

☐ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

☐ Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

☐ 5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

SCHEDULE F - CREDITORS HOLDING UNSECURED NONPRIORITY CLAIMS

State the name, mailing address, including zip code, and last four digits of any account number, of all entities holding unsecured claims without priority against the debtor or the property of the debtor, as of the date of filing of the petition. The complete account number of any account the debtor has with the creditor is useful to the trustee and the creditor and may be provided if the debtor chooses to do so. If a minor child is a creditor, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. §112 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m). Do not include claims listed in Schedules D and E. If all creditors will not fit on this page, use the continuation sheet provided.

If any entity other than a spouse in a joint case may be jointly liable on a claim, place an "X" in the column labeled "Codebtor," include the entity on the appropriate schedule of creditors, and complete Schedule H - Codebtors. If a joint petition is filed, state whether the husband, wife, both of them, or the marital community may be liable on each claim by placing an "H," "W," "J," or "C" in the column labeled "Husband, Wife, Joint, or Community."

If the claim is contingent, place an "X" in the column labeled "Contingent." If the claim is unliquidated, place an "X" in the column labeled "Unliquidated." If the claim is disputed, place an "X" in the column labeled "Disputed." (You may need to place an "X" in more than one of these three columns.)

Report the total of all claims listed on this schedule in the box labeled "Total" on the last sheet of the completed schedule. Report this total also on the Summary of Schedules and, if the debtor is an individual with primarily consumer debts, report this total also on the Statistical Summary of Certain Liabilities and Related Data.

☐ Check this box if debtor has no creditors holding unsecured claims to report on this Schedule F.

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

Re: Micksch/BK
Advance Payment Retainer
Our File No.: 14-1185

Dear David and Nancy:

This letter will confirm your limited engagement of Ralph, Schwab & Schiever, Chartered (the "Firm") and the basis upon which the Firm will represent you. It is the Firm's understanding that subject to and in accordance with the Firm's "Standard Terms of Engagement for Legal Services," the Firm is to represent you, individually, in connection with your filing of a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy case in the United States Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division.

1. Services to be Rendered. Our services will include consultation concerning bankruptcy and creditor's rights, preparation of all pleadings necessary to commence the case; and with your assistance, the preparation of both the Bankruptcy Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs; attendance at the initial session of the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors and the initial session of a discharge hearing (if required), and routine hearings for reaffirmation and lien avoidance.

2. Exclusion from Services. Our services will not include any other matters which may arise in the case, including for example, but not limited to, representing you in connection with: i) objections to exemptions, ii) objections to discharge, iii) complaints to determine dischargeability of debts, iv) United States Trustee's office compliance inquiries and enforcement proceedings, v) Rule 2004

David and Nancy Micksch
October 9, 2014

Examinations, vi) proceedings or actions to obtain documents or information from creditors or third parties by either voluntary request or compulsory process, viii) any matters requiring legal expertise in non-bankruptcy law practice areas, ix) adversary proceedings, if any, or x) judicial or non-judicial proceedings in a venue other than the bankruptcy court. Our representation in any matters arising and not covered by this engagement agreement will be subject to a separate engagement agreement. Unless we enter into a separate engagement agreement in writing, it is expressly understood that this engagement agreement does not obligate the Firm in any way to represent you in any other matters other than described in paragraph number one above.

3. The Attorney's Fees. The Firm has agreed to represent you for a reasonable fee based upon the experience of the attorneys and paralegals handling the matter and calculated upon the attorneys' and paralegal's hourly time involved in handling the matter. At the present time, my hourly rate, as well as the hourly rate for Michael L. Ralph, Sr. and Carey J. Schiever is $350.00. The hourly rate for Michael L. Ralph, Jr. is $295.00. The hourly rate for associates of the firm is $250.00 per hour, and the current rate for paralegal's time is $150.00 per hour. We will inform you on our billing invoices of any change in the hourly rate of any personnel assisting with your representation.

Before proceeding further on your behalf, we would ask that you pay this firm an Advance Payment Retainer in the amount of $3,000.00 plus the sum of $335.00 for the filing fee for the above-referenced services. Both Dowling v. Chicago Options Associates, Inc. et al., 226 Ill.3d 277, 875 N.E.2s 1012 (2007), and the revised Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct of 2010 provide that an agreement for an Advance Payment Retainer shall be in writing signed by the client that uses the term "Advance Payment Retainer" to describe the retainer, and states the following:

- (1) the special purpose for the Advance Payment Retainer and an explanation why it is advantageous to the client;
- (2) that the Advance Payment Retainer will not be held in a client trust account, that it will become the property of the lawyer upon payment, and that it will be deposited in the lawyer's general account;
- (3) the manner in which the Advance Payment Retainer will be applied for services rendered and expenses incurred;
- (4) that any portion of the Advance Payment Retainer that is not earned or required for expenses will be refunded to the client; and
- (5) that the client has the option to employ a security retainer, provided, however, that if the lawyer is unwilling to represent the client without receiving an Advance Payment Retainer, the agreement must so state and provide the lawyer's reasons for that condition.

An Advance Payment Retainer is treated as income upon receipt by our firm, deposited into our firm's operating account, and is not held in our firm's client trust account. An Advance Payment Retainer is not considered our clients' property. Accordingly, an Advance Payment Retainer is protected against claims of our clients' creditors. This feature of an Advance Payment Retainer constitutes a special purpose for its use in your case, and for this reason it is advantageous to you.

Alternatively, a Security Retainer is deposited into our firm's client trust account, and is not treated as income or property of our firm until the funds are applied toward outstanding invoices. The funds paid to a lawyer pursuant to a Security Retainer are not present payment for future services. This means that a Security Retainer is considered our clients' property, and is not protected from our clients' creditors.

For the reasons stated above, our firm is only willing to represent you on an Advance Payment Retainer basis.

We will endeavor to send a bill to you on a monthly basis unless services performed during the prior month are minimal. Detailed time records will, of course, be available for your inspection. Any expenses incurred and disbursements made by us on your behalf will be payable by you in addition to our fees and will be billed with the fee invoices.

4. Costs and Expenses. It is understood that the above attorneys' fees do not include fees, costs and expenses for outside services and assistance such as: Chapter 7 filing fees (the filing fee is $335.00), deposition costs, reasonable charges for travel expenses, food and lodging outside of Chicago, Illinois, long distance telephone calls, photocopy expenses, appraisers, expert witnesses, investigators, associate counsel, accountants, and financial analysts. If any such fees, costs or expenses are to be incurred, and to the extent possible under the circumstances it will be by prior agreement with you. You shall be responsible for payment for all such amounts. These costs and expenses will be billed with the fee invoices.

5. Payment of Credit Report for Bankruptcy Due Diligence. Our firm may elect to obtain a credit report in order to ensure bankruptcy due diligence when preparing your bankruptcy schedules. In doing so, you will be asked to review and complete a Consumer Authorization and Release form which authorizes our firm to obtain consumer report/credit information from First American Credco, a service that combines the reporting efforts of Experian, TransUnion and Equifax credit reporting bureaus. Credit reports will be obtained in an effort to ensure that all creditors and collection agencies are aware of your bankruptcy, and ultimately, to provide you with assurance that such debts will be discharged. It is your responsibility to review and verify the accuracy of any debts appearing on your credit report. Additionally, if any debt appears on the credit report that you have an interest in reaffirming, we may attempt to obtain a reaffirmation agreement from such creditor on your behalf.

You will be responsible for the fees required to obtain the credit report. Individual debtor credit reports are $28.00. Joint debtor credit reports are $48.00.

6. Payment of Fees and Cost. In the event our arrangement is based upon hourly billing, on a periodic basis, the Firm will submit to you itemized statements of services rendered setting forth the date, description of such service, time spent in rendering such service, name of attorney, legal assistant, or other staff member rendering such service, and the hourly rate therefore, together with an itemization of all expenses incurred or paid. All of such charges shall be credited against the retainer fee paid. All fees and expenses shall first be charged against our retainer. In the event our total fees and expenses are less than our retainer, we will refund the difference to you, without interest. In the event there are insufficient funds remaining in the retainer, you shall pay the Firm all such fees, costs and expenses upon submission by the Firm of its monthly billing statement. All payments of fees and costs that are billed are due and payable within thirty (30) days after the billing date. The Firm also reserves the right to request an additional retainer. Timely payment of the fees costs and expenses are your personal obligation.

7. Amendments to Schedules. Creditors who are not listed in the Bankruptcy Schedules may not be discharged in the bankruptcy case. It is your duty to provide a complete and accurate listing of all creditors. The Firm will rely upon this list and cannot conduct an independent investigation of the names and addresses of your creditors. A debtor has the right to amend his or her Bankruptcy Schedules at any time up to the discharge of a debtor. The Firm will prepare any amendments to the Bankruptcy Schedules (i.e. to add creditors, to add or change values of property, to change exemptions on property, etc.) at an additional hourly charge per professional rendering such service together with any filing fee required for the amendment.

8. Bankruptcy Case. When the bankruptcy petition is filed, an automatic stay will take effect which prohibits most creditors from taking any action to collect their claims or enforce their liens outside of the bankruptcy court without obtaining leave from the bankruptcy court to do so. For example, most creditors are not allowed to file suit against you, nor foreclose upon or repossess any of your property without obtaining leave from the bankruptcy court to do so. It is essential, of course, that our office be told of any threatened lawsuits, foreclosures, or repossessions, as well as all pending lawsuits, foreclosures or repossessions or other actions so that we can make sure that the creditors and their attorneys are notified.

October 9, 2014

It is your desire to obtain the most complete debt discharge which can be obtained under the facts of your case and applicable law. We have advised you that some debts are not capable of discharge, and we discussed the general nature of the non-dischargeable debts which arise most frequently. We cannot state whether your debts will be discharged. In addition, some of your property may be subject to a lien or security interest. It will be necessary to pay these debts in order to retain such property, unless the lien or security interest can be avoided, in part or whole. Consistent with our engagement, we will advise you with respect to reaffirmation agreements and avoidance issues.

9. Miscellaneous. This engagement agreement, including our attached "Standard Terms of Engagement for Legal Services", is the sole and exclusive agreement covering the Firm's representation. Any modification of this engagement agreement must be in writing, signed by you and an authorized attorney of the Firm.

It is understood that we do not guarantee the accomplishment of any result, but agree to give our best efforts on your behalf.

As the matter of our representation included in this engagement agreement involves bankruptcy, this engagement agreement is subject to modification and/or review by the bankruptcy court.

In the event of any litigation concerning this engagement agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to attorneys' fees as a part of its damages.

10. Agreement to Terms and Conditions. We trust that this engagement agreement is not unduly complicated. From our experience, legal matters are complicated by nature. The purpose of this engagement agreement is to set forth the essential terms and conditions of our engagement in writing, so that both parties have a full understanding. If any of the above is not clear, please advise.

The Firm looks forward to working with you in the future. If this letter represents your understanding of the attorneys' fee and cost arrangements, please sign a copy of this engagement agreement and return it to our office. Our representation of you does not begin until this engagement agreement is signed by you and the agreed retainer paid to the Firm in collected funds.

The undersigned clients acknowledge that they have read the above engagement agreement, fully understand its contents, and agree to its terms and conditions.

Very truly yours,

STANDARD TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT FOR LEGAL SERVICES

1. Scope and Assignment of Duties. The scope of our duties will encompass the matters referred to in the accompanying engagement letter and any future matters for which we may be engaged. We will endeavor to assign those lawyers and staff personnel needed to perform the services you desire on an effective and cost efficient basis.

2. Charges. We will charge for services based upon an hourly basis for services rendered and the reasonable value of those services. Other factors impact the amount of hourly time spent providing such services including the time limitations imposed by you or the circumstances, the novelty and difficulty of the questions, the amount involved, and other similar considerations. At the present time our hourly rates for attorneys range from $450.00 to $225.00 and are subject to change from time to time. Where appropriate, we will attempt to use paralegal services which are billed at substantially lower rates than those of attorneys. We will expect reimbursement for out of pocket costs on your behalf, including but not limited to delivery charges, copying or producing documents, filing fees, deposition and transcription costs, witness fees, travel expenses, secretarial overtime and the like. These costs will be itemized on your invoices.

3. Standard Billing and Payment Procedures. We normally bill on a monthly basis unless the services performed during the prior month are minimal in amount or other circumstances dictate a different periodic billing. Payment for attorneys' fees and out of pocket disbursements is due within thirty (30) days after receipt of our bill. We reserve the right to charge interest on accounts which are past due at the rate of nine percent (9%) per annum.

If you have paid a retainer, it will be applied as a credit against our first billings.

4. Withdrawal and Termination. You may terminate our engagement for any reason whatsoever upon written notice to us. Upon termination and upon payment of our fees, we will deliver to you such papers and property as you request, but we will retain our own files. You will be expected to pay the costs of copying and of delivery. Termination of our services will not affect your responsibility to pay for legal services rendered and all out of pocket disbursements up to the date of termination.

We may terminate our engagement for any of the reasons permitted under the "Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct" including, without limitation, your failure to disclose material facts or misrepresentations by you, or any other conduct or situation which, in our judgment, impairs an effective attorney client relationship or conflicts with our professional responsibilities or your failure to pay our charges.

5. Review of Statements. To minimize the likelihood of errors or misunderstandings, you agree you will review each statement promptly and advise us of any questions or disagreements you may have regarding it. Absent such advice within thirty (30) days after the rendering of the statement, it is understood and agreed that you will be deemed to have reviewed the bill and accepted it as correct.

6. Collection Procedures and Dispute Resolution. In the event of non-payment, it is our custom to seek alternative dispute resolution via either mediation or arbitration. If such efforts do not resolve the non-payment issues satisfactorily, it is our custom to refer the matter to other attorneys for collection. If we do so or if we institute proceedings ourselves, or if you do so or initiate proceedings yourself, the party who prevails in such proceedings shall be entitled to recover costs, expenses, and reasonable attorneys fees.

7. Enforceability. If any provision of the accompanying letter or these Standard Terms of Engagement for Legal Services is deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall not affect any of the remaining provisions thereof.

8. Document Retention. Wherever possible, we ask that you provide us with legible copies of documents, and retain all original documents in your own files. We will, if necessary, specifically request original documents, but in all other instances, legible copies will suffice. We will notify you when we are closing your file and sending it to our off-site storage facility. It is your responsibility to ensure that you obtain all documents that you want from your file prior to the documents being sent to our off-site storage facility. After your file is transferred to an off-site storage facility, it will be maintained for a period of up to five (5) years. During that time, the file may be retrieved, at your cost, to obtain materials contained in that file. At the expiration of five (5) years after your file has been closed, your file, and all of its contents, will be destroyed, and the documents in that file will no longer be available to you or us.

9. Questions. Whenever you have any questions or comments regarding our services or the status of your matters, please do not hesitate to contact the attorney with whom you are working. We encourage your comments, questions or suggestions, all of which enable us to serve you more efficiently and to enhance our working relationship.

10. Your Consent. Your signature to the accompanying letter will indicate your understanding and agreement to the terms set forth above.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
